ANNOUNCEMENTS

February is Black History Month | We celebrate the African-Americans who have played vital roles in the development of The United Methodist Church. Susan Angeline Collins was the daughter of Isaac Collins, an emancipated slave who also served in the Civil War. Susan worked for a pastor as a young woman and in 1887, at the age of 36, she was recruited as a missionary. She would go on to become the first American missionary bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Africa and founded a school for girls in Angola in the early 1900's.

INVITATIONS

AN INVITATION TO FOLLOW JESUS

Jesus loves you and desires to be in relationship with you. Jesus offers you abundant life (peace, joy, meaning, purpose, love, fulfillment) now and forevermore.

AN INVITATION TO CONNECT

Connections with others are a vital part of a life well-lived. God made you for connection. For disciples, our love for Jesus is the reason connections matter. Why? Because connections provide opportunities for learning, growing and serving together. Connections are life-giving and begin the process of being seen, known and heard.

To discuss either invitation, contact Robin Payne at RobinP@douglasvilleFUMC.org or call 770-942-3146.
